In the late 2000's She started referring to me as "My Little Lamb Chop", and no I have no recall as to why, but endearing, never-the-less...

And the following message to me on my birthday November 27, 2010:

A few Words From my Heart...

Happy Birthday to YouMy Little Lamb Chop !!!

Each passing year is a number that fills the heart
With the joys of life...

But that's just a start...my little Lamb Chop
Try counting the friendships you hold in your heart... including mine
Then count the good deeds that you so often do...

You might have to stop at a million or two
You've never said no....to even my littlest request

I appreciate you sooo much !!!

Count the things that you've accomplished and all the kind words you've said...

Count the places you've been, good books you've read
And the CNAC website you've maintained

Then count, if you can, all the lives that you have touched...including mine

With your everyday caring that matters so much to your family and friends
Then you'll know the differences you've made...
Will be perfectly clear...
And then you'll know why your birthday means so much
With every passing year to all of us who love you so much...

A very Happy Birthday to you !!!...from my heart

Love. Valerie

And from 2011 a message about mine and Clark's anniversary present on our 28 Anniversary.

"Hello My Little Lamb Chop....

I am sooo happy you got your belated birthdays on you and Clark's anniversary !!!
I listened to the message Clark left on the answering machine...touched my heart so !!!

It was good to talk to you both on the phone...sorry I couldn't talk longer...I had a customer in the shampoo bowl who was on a time schedule.

I hope you both had a very wonderful Anniversary...28 years...that great !!!

It was so funny...I had no idea how complicated it would be to get the frozen curry to you. Who would know I would have to co-ordinate the time shipping from Willits...via the shipping truck...via the plane taking off from Ukiah airport (30 miles away) to Palm Springs...delivery to you both at your home...and still have the curry in a somewhat frozen state !!!

What a Hoot !!!

Take Care....

Love

Valerie"
