

Joe Michiels

JOINT REUNION

FLYING TIGERS

American Volunteer Group
Chinese Air Force

CNAC

China National Aviation
Corporation

OJAI VALLEY INN

OJAI, CALIFORNIA

26th, 27th and 28th of July, 1962

Gen. Claire Lee Chennault

Claire Lee Chennault

TWENTY YEARS AGO, at midnight on July 4, 1942, the American Volunteer Group was officially dissolved and passed into history. At the same moment a group of former AVG pilots officially started to work for CNAC, flying supplies across the "Hump" from India to China. Because of a common background in time and place, the two organizations later founded by the survivors of these groups, now meet in joint reunion, commemorating their activities.

FLYING TIGERS

(AMERICAN VOLUNTEER GROUP • CHINESE AIR FORCE)
INCORPORATED

ALL CORRESPONDENCE: 737 BETHANY ROAD, BURBANK, CALIFORNIA

DIRECTORS

Lt. Gen. Claire L. Chennault
USAF (Decd.)
Honorary Permanent Chairman

John R. Rossi
Chairman

George H. Burgard	Preston B. Paul
George F. Curran	George L. Paxton
Walter J. Dolan	Joseph A. Poshefko
Henry M. Geselbracht, Jr.	Robert W. Prescott
Robert P. Hedman	Edward F. Rector
Albert V. Kaelin	Lewis J. Richards
Robert B. Keeton	Freeman I. Ricketts
Robert H. Layher	Donald L. Rodewald
Robert C. Moss	Robert T. Smith
Robert H. Neale	Edward L. Stiles

George Leo Wingshee

OFFICERS AND EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

John R. Rossi President	David L. Hill Vice-President	Donald L. Rodewald Secy.-Treas.
George T. Burgard Vice-President	Charles H. Older Vice-President	Robert W. Prescott Asst. Treas.

中國航空股份有限公司
CHINA NATIONAL AVIATION CORPORATION
ASSOCIATION

President	R. W. "Bob" Prescott
Vice-President	R. W. "Pottie" Pottschmidt
Secretary	"Reg" Farrar
Ass't Secretary	Walter "Pappy" Quinn
Treasurer	Walter "Pappy" Quinn